

JULIE BINDON

Founding Director and former Chair, JBA

Julie Bindon is the founding Director and former Chair of JBA, the largest urban planning and development advisory firm in NSW. A graduate in Town Planning from the University of Auckland, with post graduate qualifications in Land Economy from the University of Sydney, Julie is a Fellow of the Planning Institute of Australia (PIA), a Certified Practising Planner, an honorary Fellow of the Australian Property Institute and Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. She is a former NSW President of PIA and has been awarded the Urban Development Institute of Australia (UDIA) Leadership Award for Women in Development, the PIA Excellence Award for services to the Institute and the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) Business Woman of the Year award. Having worked for over 35 years as a private consultant in New South Wales, Julie has a considerable range and depth of experience in most urban planning matters, particularly in advising on major or complex urban renewal projects.