

JO WESTH

CEO of Orange Sky Laundry Inc.

Jo Westh is CEO of Orange Sky Laundry, the world's first free mobile laundry service for the homeless. The organisation began in 2014 with a crazy idea to put two washing machines and two dryers in a van and to wash and dry clothes for free. From its origins in the streets of Brisbane, Orange Sky has now grown to include services across Australia - in Brisbane, Gold Coast, Melbourne, Sydney, Sunshine Coast, Canberra, Perth, Adelaide, Wollongong and Hobart. It now does over 7 tonnes of laundry every week and, most importantly, has over 1,300 hours of positive and genuine conversations. As CEO, Jo is responsible for ensuring this fast growing charity provides a consistent and reliable service through its network of over 700 volunteers.
