

KYLIE LEGGE

Kylie Legge, BArch, MSc (Env & Pl)

Kylie Legge is a leading voice in the evolving profession of placemaking. She is an architecture graduate, planner, place maker, author, facilitator, curator, entrepreneur, and a founding Director of Place Partners, a multidisciplinary placemaking consultancy based in Sydney Australia as well as the newly launched Place Score - the world's first place experience measurement tool.

Her interests lie in the relationship between people and their urban environments and how we can work better collaboratively to create the kinds of places people want to spend time in. Her commitment to understanding the trends and external factors influencing decision-making ensures that projects she works on are fit for the future.

Kylie is the author of the Urban Trends book series, and has published 'Doing it Differently' and 'Future City Solutions'. She is an internationally regarded speaker having presented at the World Green Building Congress, Venice Architecture Biennale, UN Habitat's 'Future of Places', Green Cities and for Monocle Magazine to name but a few. Most recently she acted as Jury Chair for both the Place Leaders national awards and the AILA 'My Park Rules' competition.
